4
5                   THE CLERK:   Criminal Case No. 19-00022, 6                   United States of America versus Dexter Wilton Long;
7                   Status hearing.

8                   Counsel, please state your appearances.

9                   MS. SAMBATARO:   Good morning, Your Honor, 10                  assistant United States attorney Laura Sambataro on 11                  behalf of the government.

12                  THE COURT:   Good morning.

13                  MR. GAVRAS:   William Gavras for the 14                  defendant, Your Honor.

15                  THE COURT:   Good morning.   The Court notes 16                  the presence of Mr. Long, and I guess we'll hear from 17                  Mr. Gavras on our status.

18                  MR. GAVRAS:   Your Honor, I think my client
19                  would like to have new Counsel.

20                  THE COURT:   Uhh...

21                  THE DEFENDANT:   Excuse me, Your Honor,
22                  please, I need some -- I need some help from you and I 23                  need some clarity in obtaining help from you.   Since --

24                  THE COURT:   Well --

25                  THE DEFENDANT:   Please --

1 THE COURT: Go ahead, go ahead, go ahead --

2 THE DEFENDANT: May I be able to speak,
3 please, Your Honor, with all due respect to you and the 4 Court, attorney Gavras has been quite busy lately and 5 since my last Court hearing, I haven't been able to have 6 any type of correspondence with him. He's done a good 7 job in making some arrangements with the U.S. Attorney's 8 office and with the current U.S. Attorney... district
9 attorney over there, but my family and I are in a dire 10 strait and need for assistance and clarity that you may 11 -- can help us with.

12 Now, I was currently under the supervision 13 of probation and they have informed me that bound by 14 statute, that you -- that I'm unable to be able to get 15 back to my family to be able to help them in need --

16 THE COURT: That's --

17 THE DEFENDANT: And --

18 THE COURT: That's why we appoint a lawyer
19 for you, sir, so you can get proper legal advice.

20 THE DEFENDANT: That -- that doesn't seem to 21 be happening here, Your Honor. What's happening is in 22 -- in -- in a short period of time, I have a 23 three-year-old daughter, I have a Filipino wife, I've 24 been here in Guam for nine years. Listen, just listen 25 to me. This is my home. I am not a flight risk because

1 I have no where to fly to. You understand what I'm 2 saying?

3 (Court and defendant overlapping.)

4 THE DEFENDANT: Let me -- Your Honor --

5 THE COURT: (Inaudible.)

6 THE DEFENDANT: You've been a man that's 7 been looking out for my best interest. And you've taken 8 my plea of guilty and taken total responsibility for 9 what I've done and entered a not guilty plea for me. So 10 in a sense, that is a man that's looking out for my best 11 interest, supposedly.

12 Now, listen, just hear me out.

13 THE COURT: I already heard you --

14 THE DEFENDANT: -- Your Honor --

15 (Court and defendant overlapping.)

16 THE DEFENDANT: I've had a violation --

17 THE COURT: (Inaudible.)

18 THE DEFENDANT: I need to get back to my 19 family. That's the most important thing.

20 THE COURT: Well, that's why --

21 THE DEFENDANT: I violate -- I can't get 22 that. Listen to the attorneys I've had: I've had John 23 Gorman, I've had Mr. Moots, I've asked another attorney, 24 Teker, that declined. Now listen, now pay attention.
25 I've had Ecube, all right? I've had him. Right? He

1 hasn't talked to me in three weeks. Since the last time
2 that I come to Court, he has not made one correspondence 3 with me. What would you think that's like?

4 Let's move on. We'll just put that and let 5 that marinate. Now listen to the attorneys that I had:
6 John Gorman, Jeffrey Moots, Ecube, I have him, William 7 Gavras and I have attempted to reach out to another 8 attorney, all --

9 MR. GAVRAS: Joe Razzano.

10 THE DEFENDANT: Joe, yeah. I forgot 11 Razzano. All right. Thank you for that. Those 12 attorneys I've had. None of them have stayed more than 13 a week with me. He has stayed three weeks, but of 14 course he's had a lot of things going on. This is my 15 discovery, 50 pages. This is a 50-page discovery.
16 That's all it is. Not -- exclude the pictures; 50 pages 17 of discovery.

18 Here's my plea now, the government has come 19 to me with a plea that you expedited. You told them to 20 expedite the plea. Here's the plea. We have some 21 technicalities in it. The U.S. district attorney trying 22 to take my job from me, that's one, where I can't 23 support my family. At least they've gave me my 24 credentials back. They had taken that from me. So 25 there's some language in here that's not good for us.

1 All right? Now, this is what they want to do, the U.S.
2 district attorney, one thing they --

3 THE COURT: Sir --

4 THE DEFENDANT: Listen now --

5 THE COURT: We have here today -- go to 6 trial --

7 THE DEFENDANT: -- listen --

8 THE COURT: (Inaudible.)

9 (Court and defendant overlapping.)

10 THE DEFENDANT: It's kind of sad if you're 11 not around your children and you're using drugs. Okay.
12 You will always want to leave something behind for our 13 kids to look up to us; otherwise, we don't want them in 14 the same position that we do. That's you, I'm reading a 15 quote from you. From the person that you let back out, 16 who had made a mistake and a violation of selling meth
17 on a naval base. This is your quote.

18 THE COURT: Sir, we're here to determine --

19 THE DEFENDANT: I'm trying to get back to my 20 family.

21 (Court and defendant overlapping.)

22 THE DEFENDANT: -- try to get an attorney to 23 help me. Help us.

24 THE COURT: All right --

25 THE DEFENDANT: That's my wife right here

1 and three-year-old child, help us though, let me be 2 released back to my family and get an attorney.

3 THE COURT: I've already made a decision to 4 detain you.

5 THE DEFENDANT: I know that, I'm asking you 6 to reconsider that.

7 THE COURT: Well, the reconsideration is 8 denied based on the record.

9 THE DEFENDANT: What record is that? I have 10 no felonies. I don't have no violent crimes in my 11 background.

12 THE COURT: I've already explained on the 13 record, sir.

14 (Defendant speaking over the Court.)

15 THE DEFENDANT: -- on the informational
16 report, on the informational report --

17 THE COURT: (Inaudible) are closed.

18 THE DEFENDANT: Look, if I look at that, you
19 let -- here's another case, you released, August 7, 20 2019, Lucille Torres, 42, 608 grams of meth. Conspiracy 21 to possess to intent to distribute. You released her.

22 THE COURT: Released her today?

23 THE DEFENDANT: 2019 --

24 THE COURT: Today?

25 THE DEFENDANT: What have I done? I'm not

1 an endangerment to the community. When they went to my 2 home, there was no guns, no nothing. How am I an 3 endangerment to the community? I'm 58 years old with a 4 three-year-old child. Are you going -- a man that's 5 just (inaudible) about children, are you going to let 6 mine go in the street? How do I look at that? Am I -- 7 is it because of my race? Tell me if it is. Tell me
8 the reason it is, is because of my race? Because I'm 9 not an endangerment to this community. I've been in 10 this community nine years. Tell me what I'm an 11 endangerment to. Tell me. I have no guns, no violent 12 crimes. If I'm sentenced, they've already recommend me
13 to be released for presentencing. He's just telling me 14 now -- she doesn't want to do anything. I've tried -- I 15 -- I've taken total responsibility. I've -- I'm trying 16 to work with the U.S. district attorney's office in 17 helping with this responsibility, but no one wants to 18 help me. You think detaining me is the best thing to do 19 while my family goes to the street when you're releasing 20 people to their children -- to their families who've 21 already ten times more the drugs that I have, 22 conspiracy, they want to charge me just with attempted 23 possession of more than 50 grams. And the -- in the 24 discovery, the net weight -- the gross weight is 25 220 grams what they want to charge me, not the net. I

1 have not been able to get the full discovery to tell me
2 the net. You're not being fair to me. I'm just asking 3 fairness and I'm seeing -- I mean I'm seeing it in 4 Court. You're doing it daily, but I'm an endangerment.
5 And that's your -- that's your -- stands but it's not 6 fair.

7 THE COURT: Sir, if --

8 THE DEFENDANT: It's not fair and you know 9 that.

10 THE COURT: If you want to appeal, you can 11 always appeal the ruling to the district judge.

12 THE DEFENDANT: I have no attorney to help 13 me.

14 THE COURT: Well, that's why I'm trying to 15 get you an attorney.

16 THE DEFENDANT: Everyone you've given me has 17 not done one thing to help me.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Gavras --

19 THE DEFENDANT: -- to get back to my family 20 and you're the only one that can do that.

21 THE COURT: The only way --

22 (Defendant speaking over the Court.)

23 THE DEFENDANT: -- supervise or probation.

24 THE COURT: -- to detain you.

25 THE DEFENDANT: Don't give me statute.

1 You're not bound -- you're bound by human decency.

2 That's what you're bound by and I see that. But you 3 stand before me and tell me no, is what you're doing.

4 THE COURT: Sir, you're just like any other
5 human being that I have compassion for you just like --

6 THE DEFENDANT: We'll try find Counsel of 7 our own. Don't appoint me anything. Just give us a 8 week. Give another status hearing in a week, and 9 hopefully I can find someone. Everybody you've given me 10 -- and look, they're all of a different ethnic 11 background that's behind it. You haven't given -- Ecube 12 is the only one -- a female of color. I don't want -- 13 I'm calling it what it is.

14 MR. GAVRAS: Your Honor, I have to take 15 exception.

16 THE COURT: Sir, a lot of the lawyers --

17 THE DEFENDANT: I don't care what you take 18 exception to.

19 MR. GAVRAS: Your Honor, I must take 20 exception to what my -- this individual said about me.
21 First of all, and the only thing I'll say is, I was in 22 constant -- near constant contact with him up until two, 23 three weeks ago when we met with the U.S. attorney's 24 office. Prior to that, I was meeting with him or his 25 wife, speaking to him or meeting with his wife or

1 meeting with him at least every other day, practically.
2 I mean, and he had no problems with -- he was full of 3 compliments. We had our meeting, there's been nothing 4 to report. Now I'm accused of being a racist because of 5 that --

6 THE DEFENDANT: I have not --

7 MR. GAVRAS: So, I would ask that I be 8 removed from the case. I was just asked today to inform 9 the Court that he wanted to be removed, but I don't see 10 how we have a tenable relationship at this point.

11 THE DEFENDANT: He's been great, Your Honor.
12 Prior to the three weeks, yes, he had my discovery, he 13 set up some arrangements. Now he -- I'm not assuming -- 14 saying that he's racial towards me and I told him that 15 prior. But I'm -- but if anybody looks out -- on the 16 outside looking in, now he's been great, I told him 17 that, but it's not good for us when we don't hear from 18 someone for three weeks just to say things are moving 19 along, things are positive.

20 Now, if he wants to move because he's -- I 21 didn't call him a racist, I just said look at the racial 22 background with the lawyers I got, and all of them have 23 abandoned me. He hasn't. Yes, the week before I came 24 to court, he was working with us, but then once we came 25 to court, nothing. I'm willing to do whatever

1 assistance the U.S. district attorney's offering, but I
2 don't understand what's going on. I'm in the dark.

3 THE COURT: Well, you know, Mr. Long, sir, 4 we've been trying to appoint an attorney for you. Most 5 of the attorneys appointed have indicated that they have 6 conflicts.

7 THE DEFENDANT: I know that.

8 THE COURT: So that's why they're not 9 assisting you. I appointed Mr. Gavras to represent you.
10 You don't want him because he hasn't communicated with 11 you in the last three weeks.

12 THE DEFENDANT: Well -- well, what would you 13 say about that if someone --

14 THE COURT: (Inaudible.)

15 (Defendant speaking over the Court.)

16 THE COURT: Lawyers are very busy.

17 THE DEFENDANT: I know he's been. He's been 18 very busy. I've been keeping up with his trials.

19 THE COURT: They have a lot of cases that 20 they look after, and unless you're able to retain your 21 own attorney, you know, you can hire and fire your 22 attorney.

23 THE DEFENDANT: Okay, let's -- who was next 24 on your list for me?

25 THE COURT: Oh, well, let me see, Mr. -- you

1 know I appointed Mr. Gavras to represent you.

2 THE DEFENDANT: Who wants to get off now.

3 THE COURT: It's not him, it's you, sir.

4 You come to Court today --

5 THE DEFENDANT: Well, he said I said I'm a 6 racist.

7 THE COURT: Because he'd seen -- you
8 inferred --

9 THE DEFENDANT: It's not good Your Honor --

10 THE COURT: -- you inferred racist remarks,
11 sir. You inferred that he's a racist in your remarks.

12 THE DEFENDANT: I'm not saying -- just tell 13 me, Your Honor, just -- you just tell me, of all -- what 14 I just -- countless cases of where you've let people 15 back to their families with worse offenses than me. You 16 tell me.

17 THE COURT: Sir --

18 THE DEFENDANT: Just tell me, Your Honor.
19 Why not? Why not?

20 THE COURT: I tell you what, you know, when 21 you have an attorney, sir, you know, you have to 22 understand --

23 THE DEFENDANT: Okay, fine, I understand an 24 attorney. But I'm asking you, Your Honor.

25 (Speaking over each other.)

1 THE COURT: That if I appoint an attorney
2 for you, this attorney might be busy also, he might --

3 THE DEFENDANT: That's fine, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: It's almost like you want an 5 attorney --

6 THE DEFENDANT: (Overlapping.) But I'm 7 asking you, not the attorneys.

8 THE COURT: I can't assist you --

9 THE DEFENDANT: -- Your Honor, and what 10 you've done in your cases --

11 THE COURT: -- your attorney will assist 12 you.

13 THE DEFENDANT: I know that, Your Honor, I 14 appreciate that. But I'm asking clarity from you, of 15 your cases, July 30th, conspiracy, tested seven times.
16 One person, you let back out violating nine times.
17 Nine. And you released him back to their families. I'm 18 asking you, Your Honor, for one violation --

19 THE COURT: The record will speak for 20 itself, sir.

21 THE DEFENDANT: -- back to probation, back
22 for testing. I've been open to them. They have a 23 folder of all -- I never had a felony. I -- I have one 24 misdemeanor. If they can verify being here for nine 25 years that the governor pardoned me and it's expunged.

1 My wife has gone to them. And they recommended that -- 2 they didn't give enough time to develop my character.
3 That they would recommend if I be sentenced, that they 4 would recommend me back to my family. Nine times.
5 Seven times. Four times. And you still -- I'm asking 6 one time. That's okay. I just -- that's the clarity
7 I'm asking from you, not from an attorney. I'm asking 8 from your Court.

9 THE COURT: So Mr. Gavras, in terms of the 10 representation of Mr. Long, are you able to work with 11 him? Or -- or not?

12 THE DEFENDANT: He's a fine attorney. He's 13 -- he's -- he's --

14 MR. GAVRAS: Judge, this is the -- I -- I
15 can work with him. Thank you.

16 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: The reason I ask that, you know, 18 Mr. Long, sir, for many reasons: I hate to lose 19 Mr. Gavras who has been helping you and you seem to 20 indicate that he's done pretty good for you, other than 21 the last three weeks. We have to be, in a sense, 22 reasonable, if I can ask you to be that. You know, 23 lawyers are very, very busy. They just cannot talk to 24 you every day, they cannot see you every day. Sometimes 25 --

1           THE DEFENDANT: I'm not asking every day,
2 just once a -- once a week. We agreed to that but --

3           THE COURT: They are -- and, sir, you know,
4 they might not even have the time to see you once a 5 week.

6           THE DEFENDANT: Not see me, we've already 7 made the arrangement that he can't see me.

8           THE COURT: If --

9           THE DEFENDANT: But --

10          THE COURT: -- Mr. Gavras.

11          THE DEFENDANT: But Your Honor --

12          THE COURT: -- if I remove Mr. Gavras, I'm 13 afraid that we might not find an attorney who doesn't 14 have a conflict.

15          THE DEFENDANT: Okay. I --

16          THE COURT: So -- so that's the basis for 17 me. And you know --

18          THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

19          THE COURT: -- asking Mr. Gavras again, sir, 20 if he's willing to work with you.

21          THE DEFENDANT: What I'll do --

22          THE COURT: If I relieve him, we may go 23 through this process many times and we won't find an 24 attorney that doesn't have a conflict.

25          THE DEFENDANT: That's true.

1           THE COURT: So the fortunate part about 2 Mr. Gavras is, despite the representations that have 3 been made to the Court today, I've asked him to 4 reconsider and he says he's willing to work with you.

5           THE DEFENDANT: I understand, but you still 6 haven't -- thank you.

7           THE COURT: Mr. Gavras, sir --

8           THE DEFENDANT: But you sidestep --

9           THE COURT: Mr. Gavras --

10          THE DEFENDANT: But you sidestep my request
11 --

12          THE COURT: Mr. Gavras is a very capable 13 attorney; very capable attorneys here, so I hate for you 14 to lose a very capable attorney.

15          THE DEFENDANT: I've lost a lot of good 16 ones, but I still -- you sidestep my challenge to you.

17          THE COURT: Well -- you can always ask to 18 have me removed from the case. If you're dissatisfied, 19 you can always appeal my ruling.

20          THE DEFENDANT: Record after record.

21          THE COURT: But Mr. Gavras, how much time do 22 you need now?

23          MR. GAVRAS: Judge, I think we would ask for 24 a Trial Scheduling Order at this time.

25          THE DEFENDANT: I'm not interested in a

1 trial. I just want to plead guilty.

2 MS. SAMBATARO: And, Your Honor, I would say
3 that Mr. Gavras and I have engaged in plea discussions 4 and we are -- you know, sometimes clients don't always 5 see what's going on behind the scenes between a 6 prosecutor and a defense attorney, but that's -- I think 7 we're asking for Trial Scheduling Order and, you know, 8 while those deadlines are going on, we're going to 9 continue to try to iron out the details of a plea
10 agreement that is fair to both sides. That is our goal 11 given Mr. Long's desire to plead guilty.

12 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you.

13 THE COURT: All right. So let me just see 14 if I got -- explain the situation, Mr. Long. You've 15 indicated your desire to enter a guilty plea since you 16 made your first initial appearance here.

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

18 THE COURT: But I just wanted to make sure 19 that you understood the complete ramification and that's 20 why a lawyer is very important, really. And your lawyer 21 -- I cannot give you advice. Your lawyer is the only 22 one that can do that. And the process to get to a plea 23 generally entails setting the matter for a trial so that 24 in the interim, if a plea can be worked out, a plea will 25 be taken before trial. But let me go through the 1 process because that's the process and we'll set a trial 2 date. Can I ask what time frame are you looking at?

3 Taking into consideration perhaps the need to go to 4 trial if things --

5 MR. GAVRAS: Judge, given the way things
6 would likely turn out, I can pretty much take any date.

7 THE COURT: Well -- I leave that to you,
8 because you're the defense attorney.

9 MR. GAVRAS: Early November, Your Honor?

10 THE COURT: Early November?

11 (Pause.)

12 THE COURT: Well, let me exclude the time
13 then for purposes of preparation and everything else.
14 So if we make it to November.

15 (Pause.)

16 MR. GAVRAS: I'm sorry, that's --

17 (Inaudible.) So we'll (inaudible).

18 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

19 MR. GAVRAS: We'll need to do it probably 20 (inaudible) October.

21 (Pause.)

22 THE COURT: That'll be the week of the 14th?
23 That'll be the first -- second full week in October.

24 (Pause.)

25 So we're looking through the Chief Judge's

1 calendar, to see if it's available.

2 THE DEFENDANT: My family is going to be in 3 the streets by then. Thanks a lot.

4 THE COURT: October 17th at 9:00 a.m. -- at 5 10:00 a.m. for jury selection and trial. And I guess 6 we'll issue dates, so let me go ahead then and set this 7 matter for trial on October 17th and this date is also 8 past the speedy trial day, right? Okay.

9 So the Court will set the trial herein for 10 October 17th at 10:00 a.m. and the Court will exclude 11 the period running from today to the trial date from the 12 running of the Speedy Trial Clock.

13 The Court finds that continuing the trial
14 date to this date will meet the ends of justice and the 15 ends of justice will be served by granting a continuance 16 in the trial date to that date and that such a 17 continuance outweighs the best interest of the public 18 and Mr. Long in a speedy trial in that it will provide 19 Mr. Long with an attorney who's not conflicted. The 20 reasonable time necessary to consider the matter, taking 21 into consideration the time necessary for effective 22 preparation and also taking into account the exercise of 23 due diligence.

24 So the period from today to October 17th at 25 10:00 a.m. is excluded from the running of the Speedy

1 Trial Clock. And also in that regard, the Court will 2 issue a trial -- new Trial Scheduling Order that sets 3 this trial date and all other trial dates that would be 4 pertinent to the October 17th trial date.

5 (Pause.)

6 MR. GAVRAS: I'm sorry, Judge.

7 THE COURT: I'm just waiting for you.

8 MR. GAVRAS: I know, thank you.

9 (Pause.)

10 THE COURT: Are there any other matters that 11 you want us to address today?

12 MR. GAVRAS: Thank you, Judge.

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.

14 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you.

15 THE COURT: You're welcome, sir.

16 THE CLERK: Please rise. The Court stands 17 in recess.
